

LA BOITE A LIRE

The exclusively french bookshop of Cyprus.

This is the site for the exclusively french bookshop of Nicosia whose goal is to welcome and serve any person, living anywhere in Cyprus, for any french book anyone may need. We can send your books anywhere you are living in Cyprus and hope this site will be your direct access to our bookshop, from the comfort of your home. We are well equipped for the best counseling service for french books. Never hesitate to call us directly or write us an e-mail and we will do our best to help you. Even if you are only learning the language and need some advise do not ever hesitate to contact us and ask for whatever you may think will help you improve. Our long experience can often provide with practical free solutions too ! Nobody can be better placed for a good counseling for books than your specialised french bookseller. If and when we don't have a book we can order it for you. Our bibliographical system is our best tool and for all this there is no extra charge.

Once, walking through the streets of Geneva, I saw the following notice on the door of a tiny bookshop:

“When I feel good I go to my bookshop, and when I don't feel good I still go to

We are the exclusively French bookshop of Cyprus. With our experience of the Cyprus market for over 20 years we are the best counselor when it comes to French books and we will be happy to welcome you to our bookshop and offer you the best possible service. We have set up a strong electronic bibliographic service and we can find and eventually order for you any title of any genre and subject.

French language teachers or students can browse through an excellent selection of books, which will help anyone studying French and students can find books which can help them progress in their lessons. They can also find school books which are aligned with the French Educational System.

For the people who enjoy reading or those who are just looking for a book to offer as a gift, we store a variety of subjects and categories for all ages and preferences.

For those who do not speak it but need to buy books in French or get information on the culture and language, we can always offer our advice and expertise on the matter. External links In Nicosia you will also find the French school Arthur Rimbaud which offers the French Educational System, approved by the French Ministry of Education and the Ministry of Education and Culture of Cyprus. The French Cultural Centre, part of the French Embassy of Cyprus, organises various activities and events as well as French language courses for children and adults.

It is responsible for the official French exams DELF & DALF and is the best information centre for studies in France.
